

WELL-SUITED FACT SHEET

WHO ARE WE

Well-Suited is an educational non-profit organization dedicated to helping Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) students with college and career planning assistance. Our organization creates partnerships with colleges, universities, communities and other schools to set up low-income students of color for their future career ambitions.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to get more LAUSD students into higher educational institutes and provide career readiness through paid internships, employment and academic and personal support. Well-Suited wants students to feel comfortable pursuing professional employment and individual success.
